RICHBORO 36 MEMBERS

Northampton has 18 Districts. Each District has two Committee people, one male and one female.

Each Committeeperson in each District is elected by the Registered Republican Voters in that District at the Primary Election.

Each District has a different polling place. The polling place for District #9 is the Holland Middle School, 400 Holland Road.

Any Registered Republican is eligible to be a Committee Person. There is no charge. The first step is to get on the ballot. A form to get on the ballot is available from the Board of Elections in Doylestown. 215 348-6154 It requires the signatures of ten Registered voters who live in the District. The form must be signed, notarized and given to the Board of Elections by 5:00PM Feb 14th. When that's done your name will be placed on the ballot on the voting machine for the APRIL 24th, 2012 Primary Election.
